

Questions to Ask Your Photographer

When you meet with your wedding photographer for the first time, it's a good idea to ask some important questions upfront so that you have a clear understanding of how they work and the expectations of both parties. Feel free to add your own questions in the list below to get all the important details noted down!

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

- Are you available on my wedding date and how far in advance should I book with you?
- What kind of deposit is required to secure the booking?
- What kind of packages do you have available? What would you recommend based on my requirements?
- How would you describe your photography style?
- How do you like to work on the day - discreet, or very present?
- Will you have an assistant or second shooter?
- Have you shot at our wedding venue before, and if not, will you check it out prior to the day to location scout and identify any lighting issues?
- Do you shoot in digital or film?
- If I prepare a shot list of images required, will you be able to work with this?
- What is your general turnaround time for receiving the photos after the wedding? How will they be sent?
- How many images will we receive?
- Do you offer photo albums, and is this an additional cost?
- *Do you have a backup photographer in case you are unable to shoot on the day?
If so, can we view a sample of their work?*
- Have you shot any weddings similar to ours in terms of style and guest numbers?
- Will you colour correct our photos?
- What kind of equipment do you use? Do you have a backup?
- Do you have all of the necessary insurances required?
- What information do you need from us before the big day?
- Do you have any testimonials from past clients?
